1. This episode portrays two important moments in the life of Mary, Jesus' mother: finding Jesus in the Temple and the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary and Jesus share a remarkable bond – the bond of mother and son. As well, Mary is someone who invests in the lives of those she knows and, when necessary, she brings their needs to her Son. How is your appreciation for Mary as Mother grown in seeing the portrayal of her in relationship with her Son?
2. The disciples highlight the fact that they were not worthy to be his followers. Each of them have faults and a distinct humanity as portrayed here. How does the awareness of their own humanity speak to your own journey of faith and your role as a modern disciple?
3. As the disciples continue to “watch and learn” from Jesus, how does their journey with him enrich your growing awareness of Jesus' life and mission for your life?
