

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are little and big ways that we can live out a disposition of surrender to God's will in our daily lives?
2. It's very easy to love people the way that we desire to love them, but like Saint Francis Xavier, how can we love the people in our lives where they are at?
3. Sharing God's word can be a scary thing in certain situations. What are some fears that you have with sharing God's word with those around you? What are some ways that you have share His word to others?
