

ONLINE
WORKSHOP

The Challenge of Reconciliation in the Indigenous Church Context

A virtual series for leaders and volunteers in Youth, Young Adult, and Family & Children Ministries

Thursday February 29, 2024

7 pm – 9 pm EST

Presenter: Maria Lucas, JD, Hons.BA

Indigenous Bar Association

About Maria Lucas:

Maria Lucas has always had a strong interest in Indigenous-Crown relations and understands the important role that law plays in reconciling this relationship. A lawyer with Goldblatt Partners, supporting their Aboriginal law practice group, Maria draws on her varied skill set, that includes a substantive understanding of the complexities of Aboriginal law, to assist clients in advancing and protecting their Indigenous and treaty rights. Maria undertakes this work all with a view to building greater space for the exercise of Indigenous self-determination. Maria is a member of the Indigenous Bar Association.

Cost: $15 CND

Information and Registration: <https://ignite-canada.ca/network-workshops/>

This Workshop series is part of NETWORK, a program of leadership formation for youth, young adult and family and children ministry offered by the Redemptorists of North America and Ignite Ministry. www.ignite-canada.ca

Upcoming Workshops:

April 4: Living and Witnessing to Racial Justice

April 25: Environmental Crisis and Opportunity: Engaging Young People to Action